From

To

K. Chandu, Esq., B.A.,
Revenue Commissioner in Mysore.

The Chief Secretary to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

Sir,

File under Separately

In inviting kind reference to this office letter No.C. 297/G1. 1923-24 dated 28th August 1923 submitting a report of my tour in the tracts affected by floods and stating incidentally that the suggestions made by Mr. Hosakoppa Krishna Rao in his article in the Daily Post of the 27th August 1923 regarding the grant of loans to tenants in Malnad parts possessing saleable or other transferable interests in land as well as to those who do not possess any such interests will be investigated, I have the honour to state that Rules XXI to XXIII (Pages 183 and 184 Revenue Manual, Part III) and Rule XXX (Page 183 Revenue Manual, Part III) under the Land Improvement Loans Regulation afford sufficient scope for the grant of loans in all deserving cases; cases of temporary distress of agriculturists (including tenants) on account of the floods being treated as equivalent to distress on account of scarcity. ^{attention of the} The Deputy Commissioners will be drawn to the above rules and they will also be requested to dispose of applications without unnecessary delay and to ask Amildars to intimate in the flooded villages that loans not exceeding Rs.50/- could be granted to non-Khatedars also in such circumstances.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

I submit herewith for His Highness' gracious perusal a copy of Government Order No. R. 1324-9/R.M. 11-2³~~7~~-11 dated 20th September 1923, approving of the action taken by the Revenue Commissioner in regard to the free grant of Land Improvement and Takavi Loans to the Malnad tenants affected by the recent floods.

2. Rule XXX of the Rules issued under the Land Improvement Loans Regulation provides that Assistant Commissioners may, in times of scarcity or distress, grant small loans not exceeding Rs. 50/- each, for urgent purposes such as, purchase of seed, fodder, ploughing cattle or agricultural implements. The Revenue Commissioner suggests that distress due to floods may be treated as being equivalent to distress on account of scarcity and that loans not exceeding Rs. 50/- might be granted to non-khatedars also who are affected by the floods. This proposal has been sanctioned by Government and it has been directed that all action taken in this regard should be prompt and that the total amounts disbursed should be reported to Government after a month.
